TITLE OF REPORT:	Reporting on the online publishing of Statutory Registers.
REPORT BY:	Corporate Web and Information Manager
PURPOSE OF REPORT:	To report back to the Committee

1. Standard Register of Interests and Register of Gifts and Hospitality

The Register of Gifts and Hospitality and the Standard Register of Interests will be published online via the new Modern.Gov e-democracy system at the beginning of November.

The ICT Service e-democracy officer will publish directly to the internet from Modern.Gov in November and will gradually train and hand over the responsibility of direct publishing to the committee services officers over the coming months.

2. Register of Interests Declared in Meetings

The Agenda and committee papers aspect of the new Modern.Gov system will be operational and published to the internet by the beginning of November. The Register of Interests declared in Meetings will be published via the new Modern.Gov system as it is at present i.e. a note is added to the minutes stating that a declaration of interest has been made and recorded. The aim is to move away from the current paper based approach and to publish directly from the Modern Gov system as soon possible.
