Report of Head of Regulation and Economic Development Service (MD)

Recommendation:

Defer.

Reason for Reporting to Committee:

At the previous meeting of the planning committee it was resolved to visit the site.

However, due to ongoing negotiations and further information required it is recommended that the site visit be held at a later date closer to when the application can be presented for determination. This was relayed to the Chair of the Committee at the arranged site visit and it was resolved to defer to visit. This is reported in the minutes.

This matter is reported here for the Committee's further confirmation.
