1. Introduction

- 1.1 The first term of four new independent members of the Standards Committee started on 20th December 2019.
- 1.2 The previous Vice-Chair's second and final term ended on 19th December 2019.
- 1.3 The Standards Committee must elect a Vice-Chair.

2. Legislative Background

- 2.1 In accordance with the Standards Committee (Wales) Regulations 2001, as amended, the members of a Standards Committee shall elect a Vice-Chairperson from amongst the Independent Members of the Committee (Regulation 22 (1)).
- 2.2 The Vice-Chair is elected for the shorter of the following period:
 - (a) A term to be of not less than four nor more than six years or
 - (b) Until the term of office of that person as an independent member of that Standards Committee comes to an end. (Regulation 22 (7))
[Unless, of course the Vice-Chair resigns earlier]
[There are also separate provisions where a casual vacancy arises.]

3. Constitutional Background

- 3.1 The Constitution does not refer to the Vice-Chair's term. It would be reasonable to consider that the same provision as for the election of a Chair is followed i.e.

'The chairperson will be elected by the members of the standards committee for a period not exceeding four years or the period s/he remains a member of the committee, whichever is the shorter period, but will be eligible for re-election ...'

4. The Election

- 4.1 On the basis of the above therefore, the Standards Committee must elect a Vice-Chair from among the following members:

Rhys Davies, Celyn Edwards, John Jones, Gill Murgatroyd, and Sharon Warnes

though, clearly, not the person elected as Chair in accordance with this Committee's earlier decision in item 4 on the Agenda.

- 4.2 The Vice-Chair will be elected for a period of four years and will be eligible for re-election.
- 4.3 Each candidate may vote for herself/himself.
- 4.4 The newly appointed Chair of the Committee will be entitled to exercise a casting vote if required.

5. Information on the Candidates

- 5.1 The biographies of the five independent members are included as enclosures to this report.

Rhys Davies – Enclosure 1
Celyn Edwards – Enclosure 2
John Jones – Enclosure 3
Gill Murgatroyd – Enclosure 4
Sharon Warnes – Enclosure 5

- 5.2 The Vice-Chair must be chosen from the above five names, excluding the individual already elected as Chair.
- 5.3 There is no specific Role Specification for a Vice-Chair. The role of the Vice-Chair is to support the Chair in his/her role and step into the Chair's role as required. On this basis, a copy of the Chair's Role Description is included as Enclosure 6 to this report.

6. Recommendation

- 6.1 The Standards Committee to elect a Vice-Chair from among its independent members for a term of four years (subject to re-election)
