

Anglesey Schools

Ysgol Corn Hir

Most pupils' understanding of moral values and equality is developing consistently.

Spiritual, moral and social aspects are presented in worship assemblies, where the importance of diversity, respect and tolerance within the local community and the wider world is celebrated appropriately.

Attend assemblies and daily acts of collective worship

Ysgol Gynradd Cemaes

They promote pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development effectively. Valuable acts of collective worship ensure opportunities for pupils to consider the views of others, in addition to giving them an opportunity to reflect on how they can look after each other. The school develops pupils' ability to reflect on religious customs and on their own beliefs and values successfully. For example, they are given an opportunity to study a wide variety of religions, such as Hinduism and Judaism and work together on extremely interesting activities, such as creating a Diva lamp and Rangoli and Mendi patterns

Attend assemblies and daily acts of collective worship

Ysgol Sefydledig Caergeiliog

Daily acts of collective worship make a valuable contribution to pupils' spiritual and moral development.

Attend assemblies and daily acts of collective worship

Ysgol Cybi

Attend assemblies and daily acts of collective worship

Ysgol Gynradd Biwmares

The understanding of many of the school's older pupils of moral and social values and equality is developing appropriately.

The school promotes pupils' personal development, including their spiritual, moral, social and cultural development effectively.

The rector visits the school regularly and teaches pupils important moral and spiritual values.

Attend assemblies and daily acts of collective worship.

St Mary's Catholic Primary School

Attend assemblies and daily acts of collective worship.

The strong links with the local church help pupils to understand issues relating to right and wrong and encourage pupils to reflect on a wide range of ethical and moral issues sensibly.

Ysgol Gynradd Esceifiog

Collective worship arrangements provide beneficial opportunities to develop pupils' moral and spiritual understanding. Assemblies have an inclusive atmosphere, for example as pupils use sign language while singing. The school's culture also promotes pupils' moral, social and cultural development effectively, for example by providing a variety of appropriate opportunities for pupils to explore new ideas. For A report on Ysgol Gynradd Esceifiog January 2023 8 example, pupils research Islam and compare it to other religions while studying Qatar and the World Cup. Provision supports all pupils to participate in whole-school decisions effective.

Attend assemblies and daily acts of collective worship.

Ysgol Gymuned Moelfre

Attend assemblies and daily acts of collective worship.

Ysgol Goronwy Owen

Attend assemblies and daily acts of collective worship.

Ysgol Gyfun Llangefni

The school promotes spiritual, moral, social and cultural development well. This is done through assemblies, thought for the day and through its personal and social education programme.

Attend assemblies and daily acts of collective worship.

Uwchradd Bodedern

The personal and social education (PSE) programme and experiences to promote pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development are suitable. For example, in PSE and religious education lessons, pupils are encouraged to understand and respect other cultures and religions.

Attend assemblies and daily acts of collective worship.